

2011 Imagine a Neighborhood Grant Award

Councilman Tony Stewart speaks to the Mt. Carmel Church volunteers who received the grant award as Kurt Stutler with United Way looks on.

Mt. Carmel Church volunteers accept their grant check joined by Kurt Stutler and Carol Burdette of United Way, City Councilman Tony Stewart, and Willie Day, Director of Neighborhood and Transit Services with the City of Anderson.

City Councilor Beatrice Thompson is joined by Kurt Stutler and Carol Burdette of United Way and Jason Craddock, volunteer with United Way's Strengthening Neighborhoods Visions Council to present the grant awards to Men at Work.

Community Housing Resource Board Member Debbie Sloan is joined by Marlane Fletcher, Fair Housing Coordinator for the City of Anderson, City Councilors Tony Stewart and Matt Harbin, Kurt Stutler of United Way, and officers of the Eastside Concerned Citizens community group, David Holland and Mary Francis Wardlaw.

City Councilor Tony Stewart says a few words about the grant award as Councilor Matt Harbin and officers of the Eastside Concerned Citizens look on.

